and 95 retail shops in the mysore District for the sale of liquor. The license fees levied according to the rates amounted to Rs 7173. If the licenses for the current year had already been issued for a whole year it is not fair they should be cancelled. The Talluks Co might also object to the monopoly of retail vend being rented to Messrs Taylor & Davy on the ground that the original understanding was that the management of retail should be in the hands of Govt.

I feel doubt in this 15/5/77 whether I should be justified in refusing Messrs Taylor & Davy's application. Their object is clearly to obtain a footing in the District under arrangements of the Mysore Abkari Rules & Regulations & I am inclined to think that I should be 2 Companies but Commissioner

The Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Mysore,

Sir,

The Chief Commissioner having in his proceedings No 1022 dated 27th April 1877 decided that as regards the Kalkalli Company no alteration in the existing system of monopoly of distillation at present possessed by the Company can be introduced, I beg to submit for his favorable consideration the proposal of Messrs Taylor & Davy for a monopoly of the retail sale of liquors for the Town & District of Mysore during the current official year. There would for 12 months be an increased revenue to Government of Rs 5000 over that of 1875-76, and of Rs 7000 & odd dues 1876-77, and if Messrs Taylor & Davy are prepared to take it on these terms for the remaining months of the year, a proportionate increase without any derangement of existing interests, and with the probability of Government, at the expiration of the Kalhally contract, obtaining better terms if it be then decided to put up to competition the monopoly both of distillation & sale.

Letter No. 26 dated 10th May 1877 from the Commissioner of Astagram

To The CC

There are at present does not consider it advisable to disturb the existing arrangements for the sale of liquor - the contemplated contemplated during the year 1876-77 amounted to Rs 71,72 with the Palmully Estate the licences for the whole and Gunn parts Company issued for a whole year, it would be unfair that they should be cancelled.

Perhaps the Palmully Co. might object to the immediately of retail vend of spirits being granted to Messrs Taylor & Davy on the ground that the original understanding between themselves and the Govt was that the
